Old Business

- Walk at School recap
 - ~$6,500 profit
 - Went well
 - Inflatables were a good draw
 - Foosball was successful too. Good for students that were not into being super active.
 - It seemed like we lost a week to go for fundraising.
 - Get more student awareness.
 - Another social media account

- Videos/announcements everyday before WAS
 - Prizes per day raised.
 - Wear pjs on friday
 - Tier Prizes? Highest 3 donated classes/individuals
 - Separate middle school and high school for part of the time or rotate events
 - Parents heard:
 - Students liked it.
 - Zumba seemed fun.
 - Looked forward to Knocker balls
 - "We have to do this again?"
 - Think of new activities or things for less athletic
 - Tie dye
 - Rain caused the students to seem less excited
 - Middle school students really enjoyed it
 - High school students were less excited about it/ didn't wear their shirts.
 - Do them the 2nd week so orders could be placed.
 - Parent suggestion: something different for highschool students to do to get them excited?
 - Maybe just do it for middle school?
- Tailgate #1 Recap
 - It went well
 - Almost sold out of hot dogs and everything else.
 - Tailgate helps get more students to the game.
 - Assign someone to be in the commons area for supervision.
 - Block off the hallway so students don't wander.
 - What we do
 - Senior Scholarship
 - Still doing it
 - Chuck-A-Duck-
 - Schedule for B-ball games?
 - Make a sign-up genius for people/parents to run
 - Get B-ball parent involvement so we would have several people to rotate through running Chuck-A-Duck.
 - Pop Cooler-
 - Should this continue?
 - Pop is being drank but not enough cash is being left.
 - Put a warning on the cooler to encourage paying or it will be taken away.
 - Purchase technology-
 - Move forward with a 2nd new cart?
 - Militello has the new cart we got at the end of last year.
 - Thoughts from several at the meeting indicated we did need another cart.
 - Look at Carrie Lynch's chart to see where we have cpus and go from there.
 - Overnight field trip bussing ($500 each for 6th, 7th, 8th)-
 - Have we paid for Osprey Wilds bus?
 - Not yet
 - Other bussing for high school trips-
 - Any trips upcoming?
 - Spanish and art

New Business

- Monthly events
 - September-
